Estate Planning & Elder Law

Public Benefits Planning

Linda Durston has more than 20 years experience representing individuals before the Social Security Administration, county Medi-Cal agencies, and other government agencies to protect eligibility for important needs-based public benefits, including SSI and Medi-Cal. If you, or a family member, have lost benefits because of excess resources or if you have concerns about how to qualify for needs-based benefits now or in the future, please give us a call for a brief, free consultation. If Ms. Durston cannot address your problem effectively herself, she may be able to direct you to others who can.
